

Fairfax County, Virginia

Connect with America

Fairfax County Offers Tourism Treasures in Northern Virginia

The Fairfax County Convention and Visitors Corporation (Visit Fairfax) is a non-profit marketing and promotional organization funded by the Transient Occupancy tax (hotel tax) working to bring visitors to our great community.

As the official tourism site for Fairfax County, Virginia, it's our job to give you information on Fairfax County Hotels and the fun tourist attractions in Virginia while visiting our little slice of the world. While you're here, you'll have the opportunity to spend some time at our world-famous shopping destinations or savor one of the many fine Fairfax County restaurants in the area.

During your Virginia travels, maybe you'll want to educate yourself about Fairfax County's role in defining the history and heritage of America, or enjoy some of the finest performing arts in the nation.

You're also invited to explore thousands of acres of beautifully maintained Fairfax County parks, Washington, DC attractions, and Fairfax events that will leave you with memories that last a lifetime. That's a lot of entertaining choices, but like we said, it's our job to give you all your options...and it's our pleasure to do so.

visit us at www.fxva.com